Jackson County Community Justice Juvenile Division

Detention Facility Twelve Year Data Trend Reports

SUMMARY

Information on Jackson County juvenile offenders was collected, entered and maintained in the Juvenile Justice Information System (JJIS). JJIS is a state-wide electronic case management system used by all counties in the state of Oregon and maintained by the Oregon Youth Authority.

Items to consider when reviewing data:

Small changes in raw numbers between years may create large percentages. For example, a change from 6 to 2 creates a change of 67%. Review both the raw numbers and percentages to determine the significant of these changes.

SUMMARY

Total detention admissions decreased 12% (28 youth) from the previous year. There are been a steady decrease over the last four years.

Ages 16 to 17 continue to be the highest number and percentage (53%) of youth admitted to the detention facility. Three youth under the age of 12 were admitted over the past year. 79% of admissions to the detention facility were male youth and 21% female youth. White youth (66%) followed by Hispanic youth (18%) are the largest admissions by race. Probation violations (41%) are the largest admission reason for placement in detention, followed by new law violations (34%), Warrants (20%), Violations of Conditional Release (3%), parole violations (2%), Court Order Sanction (1%) and out of state runaways (1%).

The average daily population in detention has been 16 or less youth over the last four years and what currently staffing is for. Over the last two years this has dropped to under 13. The average length of stay has increase 15% (3 days) over the last two years, with last year being 22 days.

Approximately 79% of youth entered detention only one time over the last 12 years. 86% of youth over the last year only entered detention one time, this would correlate with the highest admission reason being for probation violations.
