SEC Municipal Advisor Rule – Evidence of IRMA Exception

To Whom it May Concern:

By publically posting the following written disclosure, Jackson County, Oregon (the “county”) intends that market participants receive and use it for purposes of the independent registered municipal advisor exemption to Rule 158 of the Securities and Exchange Commission regarding Registration of Municipal Advisors (the SEC Municipal Advisor Rule).

The County as retained an independent registered municipal advisor. The County is represented by and will rely on its municipal advisor, D.A. Davidson & Co. (primary contact Matt Donahue; mdonahue@dadco.com, (503) 863-5094) to provide advice on proposals from financial services firms concerning the issuance of all municipal securities and municipal financial products. This certificate may be relied upon until June 30, 2018, and so long as this letter remains posted on the Jackson County website.

Questions or requests for additional information regarding the County’s relationship with its municipal advisor should be addressed to the County Finance Director.

Sincerely,

Shannon Bell
Finance Director
