

Adopt-a-Greenway FAQ

Adopt-a-Greenway Program

Adopting a section of the Bear Creek Greenway is a great way to make a difference in the community. This program provides many different ways for local groups, families, and businesses to get involved and help keep the Bear Creek Greenway safe and clean.

What does it mean to adopt the Bear Creek Greenway?

Greenway adoption is a great way for individuals, groups, and families to give back to the community on a regular basis. Greenway adopters are responsible for regularly removing debris and trash from their designated section.

What is required to adopt the Bear Creek Greenway?

- Fill out an Adopt-a-Greenway Application
- Set up a meeting with the Volunteer Coordinator to discuss adoption details, create a plan, and sign a contract based on the Greenway and adopter needs
- All participants sign a waiver
- All participants sign and follow a volunteer code of conduct
- Adopters maintain an active presence on the Greenway
- Adopters report volunteer hours monthly to staff

What types of tasks and projects can be done in adopted Greenways?

There are many different projects that adopters can assist with. Each section of the Bear Creek Greenway provides different needs. These needs will be discussed as potential volunteer projects for adopters to complete. Weather and time of year also play a role in determining projects as each season brings different needs. Here are examples of typical projects:

- Litter pick up
- Graffiti removal
- Native tree and shrub planting
- Landscape maintenance
- Prune
- Remove invasive plants
- Rake leaves

Who can Adopt-a-Greenway?

Almost anyone can Adopt-a-Greenway. Youth organizations, businesses, churches, clubs, schools, families, even individuals can adopt a section of the Greenway.

Is it free to Adopt-a-Greenway?

It is free to Adopt-a-Greenway; however, it is a time commitment.

How do I get tools and supplies to do a project on the Greenway?

Safety vests or shirts, gloves, litter pick up sticks and other supplies may be provided as needed.

Is there any recognition for participating in the Adopt-a-Greenway program?

Jackson County Parks will install an acknowledgement sign on each section for Greenway users similar to below.

The logo for Southern Oregon Rollergirls is circular. It features a roller skater in a red top and black pants in the center. The words "SOUTHERN OREGON" are written around the top inner edge of the circle, and "EST. 2009" is at the bottom. A red banner across the middle contains the word "ROLLERGIRLS" in white capital letters.

I still have questions. How do I get more information?
